Five distinguished plenary lectures across the four days of SSCW 2026.

Day 1: June 13 (Sat)

Time: 15:00–16:20 Room: Ito Hall

SSCW Prize Lecture

Florian Brandl University of Bonn

“Maximal Lotteries: The Case for Randomness in Social Choice”

SSCW Prize Lecture

Mengling Li Xiamen University

“Designing Priority Rules for Organ Donation”

Day 2: June 14 (Sun)

Time: 11:00–12:00 Room: Ito Hall

Condorcet Lecture

Edith Elkind Northwestern University

“Sweeping the Overton Window: Proportionality in Large Language Models”

Day 3: June 15 (Mon)

Time: 11:00–12:00 Room: Ito Hall

Presidential Address

Youngsub Chun Seoul National University

“Queueing Problems: A Survey and Open Questions”

Day 4: June 16 (Tue)

Time: 13:40–14:40 Room: Ito Hall

Arrow Lecture

Christian List Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich

“Arrow’s Impossibility Theorem at 75: A Celebratory Reassessment”

Parallel Session Details

Twelve parallel session blocks – 84 sessions – 282 papers

Day 1: June 13 (Sat)

Parallel Sessions 1: 10:30–11:45

S01-R1: Elections and Voting 1. Room: Ito Seminar Room

Chair: Akifumi Ishihara

William Zwicker (Union College Mathematics Department)

“Referendum Voting Rules”

Salma Larabi (University Marie & Louis Pasteur, CRESE, Besançon)

“A weighted mechanism for minority voting in sequential voting”

Akifumi Ishihara (The University of Tokyo)

“Electoral Competition with Expectations-Based Reference-Dependent Voters”

S01-R2: Interpersonal Comparisons. Room: Ito Gallery 1

Chair: Niels Boissonnet

Kaosu Matsumori (Hitotsubashi University)

“Interpersonal comparison of utility by measuring neural activity”

Daniel Herrmann (University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill)

“Intrapersonal Comparisons under Preference Uncertainty”

Niels Boissonnet (Bielefeld University)

“Interpersonal Comparisons Under Consensual Dilemma”

S01-R3: Welfare Criteria. Room: Ito Conference Room

Chair: Koichi Tadenuma

Kristof Bosmans (Maastricht University)

“From Pareto and Lorenz to leximin”

Pierre Bardier (Paris School of Economics and Ecole Normale Supérieure)

“Efficiency-conditional priority to the worst-off”

Koichi Tadenuma (Tokyo Woman's Christian University)

“Weak Independent Decisiveness, Inter-menu Consistency, and Oligarchy”

S01-R4: Fair Division and Allocation 1. Room: Ito Hall

Chair: Alexander Lam

Yang Chen (University of Lausanne)

“Serial Top Trading Cycles Allocations and the Exclusion Core in Mixed-Ownership Object Allocation Problems”

Bishwajyoti Mondal (Shiv Nadar Institute of Eminence)

“Group Identical Preferences Lower Bound and an Impossibility in Object Allocation”

Alexander Lam (Hong Kong Polytechnic University)

“The (Exact) Price of Cardinality for Indivisible Goods: A Parametric Perspective”

S01-R5: Matching 1. Room: Kojima Conference Room

Chair: Akira Matsushita

Yoichi Kasajima (Waseda University)

“Stability-free comparative statics for improving unfilled hospitals in doctors' rankings”

Fuhito Kojima (The University of Tokyo)

“Efficient iBF: Balanced Integration of Fragmented Matching Markets for Welfare Improvement”

Akira Matsushita (The University of Tokyo)

“Fragmentation of Matching Markets and How Economics Can Help Integrate Them”

S01-R6: Consumer Search and Pricing. Room: Kojima Seminar Room 1

Chair: Joosung Lee

Kwanhee Park (Sungkyunkwan University)

“Consumer Search with a Deadline”

Daehyeon Park (Sungkyunkwan University)

“Multi-channel Search”

Joosung Lee (Sungkyunkwan University)

“Consumer Search with Random Prominence: Price Discounting by Badged Sellers and Evidence from Airbnb Superhosts”

S01-R7: Public Goods. Room: Kojima Seminar Room 2

Chair: Yukihiro Nishimura

Ryusuke Shinohara (Hosei University)

“Voluntary Participation, Strategic Delegation, and Minimum Participation Constraints in the Provision of International Public Goods”

Liuchun Deng (Duke Kunshan University)

“Believers versus Skeptics: Experimentation in Public Good Provision”

Yukihiro Nishimura (Osaka University)

“Global Public Goods, Income Inequality, and Kantian Equilibrium”

Parallel Sessions 2: 13:00–14:40

S02-R1: Elections and Voting 2. Room: Ito Seminar Room

Chair: Ulle Endriss

Santanu Gupta (XLRI Xavier School of Management)

“Voting Paradoxes in Four Candidate Elections”

Omar De la Cruz Vicente (Universidad de Alcala)

“COALITION INCENTIVES AND REPRESENTATION UNDER SECRET MULTINAME BALLOTS”

Aswin Sivapragassam (Paris Nanterre University)

“Condorcet's Gambit: Political Ambiguity and Winning Conditions in an Election Game”

Ulle Endriss (University of Amsterdam)

“On the Difficulty of Measuring Divisiveness of Proposals under Ranked Preferences”

S02-R2: Inequality and Poverty Measurement 1. Room: Ito Gallery 1

Chair: Erwin Ooghe

Yohei Yoshizawa (King's College London)

“Disadvantage Clustering: A novel measure of relational inequality using machine-learning”

Matias Braun (ESE Business School, Universidad de los Andes Chile)

“Why Are the Needy Still in Need? Societal Concern, Family Values, and the Well-Being of Vulnerable Populations”

Koji Yokote (Aoyama Gakuin University)

“Assortativeness Measures for Multi-Type Markets: Theory and Application”

Erwin Ooghe (KU Leuven)

“multidimensional welfare and inequality: we need to talk about efficiency”

S02-R3: Welfare Economics 1. Room: Ito Conference Room

Chair: Toyotaka Sakai

Naoki Yoshihara (University of Massachusetts Amherst)

“Does dynamic market competition with technological innovation leave no one behind?: Examinations of Hicksian optimism in OLG frameworks”

Inkee Jang (Hanyang University)

“Liability Rules to Ease the Space Debris Problem Induced by Increasing Demands for Satellites”

Saptarshi Mukherjee (Indian Institute of Technology Delhi)

“Does caste have a cost? Social stigma, remarriage gains, and intra-household resource allocations”

Toyotaka Sakai (Keio University)

“Rating Stablecoins”

S02-R4: Cooperative Games 1. Room: Ito Hall

Chair: Michel Grabisch

Yukihiko Funaki (Waseda University)

“A Characterization of Egalitarian and Proportional Sharing Principles: An Efficient Extension Operator Approach”

Wataru Kitano (Tokyo University of Science)

“Fair Allocations of Joint and Sequential Team Production”

Ori Haimanko (Ben-Gurion University of the Negev)

“On subgame consistency of the Shapley-Shubik power index”

Michel Grabisch (Charles University)

“Properties of the core and other solution concepts of Bel coalitional games in the ex-ante scenario”

S02-R5: Matching 2. Room: Kojima Conference Room

Chair: Israa Hashem

Conal Duddy (University College Cork)

“Impact-based priority rules in school assignment with overlapping walk zones”

Ryosuke Sakai (Univeristy of Hyogo)

“Securely implementable matching rules in school choice”

Yuxing Liang (Concordia University)

“Decision-Relevance and Irrelevant Questions Manipulation in Strategy-Proof Matching Mechanisms”

Israa Hashem (Concordia University)

“Pareto-Efficient Matching with Gradual Acceptances”

S02-R6: Implementation. Room: Kojima Seminar Room 1

Chair: Nozomu Muto

Makoto Hagiwara (Osaka University of Economics)

“Implementation in optimin”

Tomoya Tajika (Nihon University)

“Fairness-Constrained Formal Rules without Bite: The Role of Private Communication”

Rene Saran (University of Cincinnati)

“Rationalizable Incentives: Interim Rationalizable Implementation of Correspondences”
